Completion of Practical Requirements

1

The assessor candidate must have actively job shadowed in at least two (2) assessment center processes. The assessor candidate is to grade as if an Assessor but the grades will not be used in the grading process. The purpose of the assessor candidate conducting his or her own grading is to compare the candidate's grades to the official scoring. For persons who have experience as assessors before the established requirements for certification and who have completed at least two assessment center processes as a non grading assessor, the JLMC may waive this requirement.

The purpose of this code of conduct and ethics is to instill confidence in promotional assessments and promote fairness and uniformity of assessment practices. As an Illinois assessor, it is your obligation to abide by the ethical and professional guidelines established in this code.

1. Conduct and Performance

- A. Professionalism – Conduct all duties and activities in a professional manner that will reflect favorably upon you, the jurisdiction, the assessment center process, and the emergency service delivery system.
- B. Honesty – Be honest in all dealings with the candidates and their representatives.
- C. Diligence – Be diligent in the performance of your duties as prescribed by Illinois Statutes and Illinois Assessor Training and apply these rules fairly and uniformly without advocacy for, or accommodation of, any special interests.
- D. Excellence – Perform all duties to the best of your ability so as to ensure fair and impartial evaluation of all candidates.

2. Conflicts of Interest

- A. Appearance of impropriety – Avoid the appearance of impropriety even if no impropriety exists or is intended.
- B. Prohibited assignments – Accept no assignment in which you are related to a candidate as spouse, parent, son or daughter by blood or marriage or other relatives with whom you have a social relationship or in which you have a financial or other interest with the involved parties.
- C. Unwarranted privileges – Do not use your official position to secure privileges for yourself, your family, business associates, or any other person wherein you benefit directly or indirectly with the involved parties.

3. Representation of Qualifications

Do not claim professional qualifications that you do not possess.

4. Cooperation and Investigations

Cooperate with the Illinois Joint Labor Management Committee of Assessors in an investigation of the professional conduct of any assessor.

5. Reporting Unethical Practices

Report to the Illinois Joint Labor Management Committee the unethical practices or actions of any assessor.

6. Violations

Violating this code of conduct and ethics may result in removal from the approved list of Illinois Assessors'.

(50 ILCS 742/65) Sec. 65. Violations.

A person who knowingly divulges or receives test questions or answers before a written examination, or otherwise knowingly violates or subverts any requirement of this Act commits a violation of this Act and may be subject to charges for official misconduct.

(Source: P.A. 93-411, eff. 8-4-03.)

I have read the aforementioned and will abide by the Code of Conduct and Ethics as an Assessor
